1. This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail. The applicant is shown as an accused in C.R.No.48/2006 registered by the Yerawada police station under Sections 467, 468, 471 & 420 r/w 34 of IPC. On perusing of the FIR of one Chakradhari Tiwari it appears that he and his partner Dube had built up a building jointly and partitioned it. 3 rooms were to the share of Chakradhari and 3 rooms were to the share of Dube. One of the co-accused in the room of Dube has manipulated documents to obtain loan from the financial institution and sold some of the rooms belonging to Dube and Complainant Chakradhari. Loan of Rs.2,60,000/- was taken by the present applicant from the financial institution. As per my earlier order, the APP states that entire loan has also been repaid back to the bank. Be that as it may, in my view, the present applicant prima facie appears to be a victim. In the circumstances, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail. It is therefore, directed, that in the event of his arrest in pursuance of C.R.No.48/2006 registered by Yerwada police station, the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.5,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he will report to the I.O., Yerwada police station, as and when called upon to do so in writing. Application stands disposed off.
